ORGANIZATIONAL DESCRIPTION

The Association of Asian Pacific Community Health Organizations (AAPCHO) was formed in 1987 by community health centers primarily serving medically underserved Asian/Asian American (A/AA) & Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander (NH/PI) communities. The goal of these organizations was to create a national voice to advocate for the unique and diverse health needs of A/AA and NH/PI communities and the community health providers that serve those needs.

AAPCHO's mission is dedicated to promoting advocacy, collaboration, and leadership that improves the health status and access of A/AA and NH/PI communities within the continental U.S., Hawai'i, U.S. Territories, and Freely Associated States. Our vision is to be a national leader and critical voice for A/AA and NH/PI community health centers and consumers, ensuring that our communities have better access to affordable, high quality, and culturally and linguistically proficient health care.

POSITION/ROLE

The Program Coordinator of Infectious Diseases coordinates AAPCHO's national training activities focused on improving health outcomes by eliminating health disparities that disproportionately impact underserved A/AA and NH/PIs.

The Program Coordinator is principally responsible for providing assistance coordinating programs related to maintaining and strengthening current tuberculosis (TB) control, COVID-19, and Hepatitis B priorities. Responsibilities include program coordination, planning, and supporting activities related to AAPCHO's contract agreement including but not limited to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Division of TB Elimination and Department of Health and Human Services. The contract agreement requires the Program Coordinator to support outreach to A/AA and NH/PI communities at risk for latent TB infection (LTBI)/TB disease, COVID-19, Hepatitis B, and the health care agencies that serve these populations.

The Program Coordinator reports to the Associate Director of Chronic and Infectious Disease Initiatives and works closely with the Executive Director, Deputy Director, and Program Manager of Infectious Diseases.

This position is expected to conclude on July 31, 2023, with a potential opportunity for permanent hire depending on the availability of grant resources.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

Administrative (30%)

- Coordinate membership and partnership meetings of TB, COVID-19, and Hepatitis B initiatives including meeting agenda development, attendee confirmations, and phone/video conference management including but not limited to Zoom and Google Meets.

2. Knowledgeable about public health issues, including the social determinants of health that impact A/AA and NH/PI communities.
3. Bachelor's Degree in a health-related field or commensurate experience.

OUR VALUES

The following shared values underlie every aspect of AAPCHO and its member health centers' functions and operations:

- Health care is a right not a privilege - All people must have access to affordable quality care, regardless of language, culture, immigration status and ability to pay. No one is turned away due to inability to pay, and our services and policies are designed to eliminate barriers and provide access to all.
- Wellness - Health is much more than the absence of disease. It includes physical, mental, and spiritual well-being for individuals, families, and communities. We acknowledge and respect different definitions of wellness and health within our communities.
- Community Accountability and Empowerment - Communities are the experts on their own health and essential participants in the health of their communities, families, and selves. Our services and programs are informed by and responsive to community voices.
- Diversity as Strength - A/AA and NH/PI communities are rich in diversity of language, cultural heritage, spirituality, history, experience, health beliefs and practices. Many have undergone the hardships of war, colonization, poverty, or immigration to a foreign land. We honor and value the strengths of every culture and individual.
- Collaboration Among Communities of Color – Communities of color share a history of disparities and exclusion as well as a common interest in health and health care equity. Through collaboration, we learn from each other and grow stronger, while overcoming distrust and divisions that are fostered by competition for limited resources.
